Chattanonga, Freed Co., et al. It a short address to Minnesota farm boys, the governor talked about hogs and his early days on the farm. He told the boys "Never be a snob. Reach out your hand to all."

The Twin Cities were the farthest western points ever visited by the governor, who never had been west of the Mississippi river heretofore. His party was augmented here by W. Jett Lauck, an economist, sent by the desporatic an economist, sent by the democratic national committee to assist the candi-date. Mr. Lauck was prominent in war labor board work and Plumb plan rail-road and profiteering publicity.

COX SAYS ARTICLE X WOULD PROTECT WEAK

Favors Application of Principle Self-Determination to Ireland. St. Paul, Sept. 7.—Gov. Cox worked a full holiday yesterday on what he termed his "pilgrimage to the Pacific coast." The democratic candidate made several speeches, viewed exhibits at the Minnesota state fair, where he drove a racchorse around the track, attended several receptions and last night went to Minneapolis to close his Minnesota visit with another address.

Two extensive and several minor sicches were made by Gov. Cox. He addressed at the fair grounds what was said to be a record crowd for Minnesota and sepoke to a large gathering later at the auditorium.

Agricultural and labor questions were the governor's Labor day subjects at the fair grounds, and the league of nations that of his public meetings here last night. A statement that he favored application of the principle of self-determina-tion to Iroland was made at the latter meeting by the candidate in response to a question from a man in his audi-

"If elected president," he was asked. "If elected president," he was asked,
"will you recognize the Irish republic?"
"I am in favor of the application of the principle of self-determination in Jaran, in China, in Persia, in Turkey and in Ireland," was the governor's reply after several passages with the innuisitor and a preliminary statement.
The reply drew loud applause and ended

The governor preceded his reply with a statement that the armistice was bared on President Wilson's "fourteen a statement that the armistice was based on President Wilson's "fourteen points," including that of self-determination and that Article X would protect weak nations from external aggression," builting attacks of stronger nations, he said. Hefadded that nations should be builted from "racial groups rather than mountains and rivers."

The leasue was advocated by the governor to his suiditorium sudience as a prerequisite as to world readjustment.

"It is the salvation of France, Austrain. England and Germany," he declared, repeating his pleas for disarmament and denouncing separate peace with Germany, which Senator Harding, his republican opponent, the governor declared, advocates "in plain words."

Gov. Cox declared that "big business was trying to elect the candidate of the senatorial oligarchy," and commented on local newspaper criticisms of his attack on republican campaign contributions. Stating that the paper had excepted to his "getting a little rough," the governor added:

"Who is it that's squealing? The same crowd that's fought a sick man on a sick bed in the Whita House for a year. This is not going to be a pink tea fight nor a pillow centest; I intend to deal in plain words and not in the meaning-less and smbigueus words that have characterized the senatorial oligarchy between the pendents, to vote their "intelligence."

The governor reiterated he was not making tha parisan campaign. He accused the "senatorial oligarchy" of having "stolen" the republican organization and appealed to the rank and file of the republicans, together with independents, to vote their "intelligence."

The governor was welcomed with frequent applause during his addressee and other activities here as he went through the state buildings and also when he awent around the track in a sulky guid-ing Peter Nash, a thoroughbred 2:011-2 cheatnut pacer. In a workout. The governor weep down the home stretch at top speed while cheers rang from the grandstand.

Boys, Never Be a Snob.

During his visit to the state fair Gov.
Cox was presented the picture of "October Day in Minnesota." by Knute Heldner, of Minneapolts, which won the gold medal. Accepting the picture, Gov.
Cox said:

Chicago, T. Twelve men, designated by Edmund H. Moore as "professional money getters" of the republican party, were subpoensed to testify at the senatorial "slush fund" hearing just before the investigating committee resumed its sessions here today. It is these twelve men, and others who may be called later. Moore alleges who can give the committee facts as to republican campaign fund plans.

Those subpoessed are:

Chares MoNider, Mason City, Ia.; C. W. McChire, Atlanta, Oa.; C. K. Mavity, Mason City, Iah; C. W. Lee, Chicago, Henry E. Owens, Chicago, Fred W. Ipham, Chicago, who is treasurer of the republican national committee and already has testified; H. C. McEldowney, Pittsburgh; A. B. Paxton, Wheeling, W. Ya.; Frank A.
